To find out the requirements for voting absentee in your home state, select your state from the list provided at canivote.org. This website is provided by the National Association of Secretaries of State.

NO REGISTRATION

North Dakota is the only state without voter registration. Therefore, no registration is required.

As a college student, you may vote in North Dakota if you are:

- A citizen of the United States;
- Eighteen years or older on the day of election;
- A resident of North Dakota; and
- A resident who has resided in the precinct at least thirty days immediately preceding any election; and
- Able to provide a valid form of identification such as a North Dakota driver's license, nondriver ID, or tribal ID that includes your current residential address and date of birth;. If an individual's valid form of identification does not include all the information required in 16.1-01-04.1\(2\) of the North Dakota Century Code, or the information is not current, the identification must be supplemented by presenting any of the documents as outlined in section 16.1-01-04.1\(3\)\(b\) of the North Dakota Century Code.

If you meet these qualifications, you are permitted to vote in the precinct associated with the residential address of your ID or supplemental documentation provided with your ID.

VOTING IN NORTH DAKOTA

Precincts (voting areas) in North Dakota maintain a list of voters who have voted in previous elections. When you appear in a polling place to vote, you will be asked to provide an acceptable form of identification (North Dakota driver's license, nondriver ID, or tribal ID) and the poll worker will then attempt to locate your name on the voting list. If your name is on the list, your contact information will be verified and you will be allowed to vote. If an individual's valid form of identification does not include all the information required in 16.1-01-04.1\(2\) of the North Dakota Century Code, or the information is not current, the individual may mark a ballot and the ballot will be set aside. The identification must be supplemented by presenting any of the documents as outlined in section 16.1-01-04.1\(3\)\(b\) of the North Dakota Century Code. The set aside ballot will be presented to the canvassing board for proper inclusion or exclusion from the tally.

VOTING ABSENTEE IN NORTH DAKOTA

If you are a college student who is a North Dakota resident and living away from your permanent residence, you may wish to vote by absentee ballot so that your voice is heard in your home precinct elections. An absentee ballot conveniently allows you to vote either in person at your county auditor's office before Election Day or by mail, without physically having to go to your polling place on Election Day.

Absentee ballot applications may be completed through the Absentee Ballot Application Wizard. Election officials of the county, city, or school district may also furnish absentee ballot applications to qualified electors.

Qualified electors are not required to provide a reason for requesting an absent voter's ballot.

According to North Dakota law, absentee ballots are to be made available by the 40th day before the election. Returned absentee ballots must have an official postmark or date stamp no later than the day before the election.

For more information about voting absentee in North Dakota, contact your county auditor or call the Secretary of State's office at 800-352-0867, ext. 328-4146

WHERE TO VOTE AS A STUDENT

1) Voting in Your Hometown

If you attend college in your hometown and still reside at home, you vote in the precinct (voting area) of your residence.

If you attend school away from your North Dakota residence and you live on or off campus, you may still vote in your hometown elections if your address is still associated to that residence. You can do this either by absentee voting or by voting in person on Election Day at your hometown precinct polling place.

2) Voting in Your College Town

You may vote in your college town by updating your identification to reflect the address at which you reside while attending school. You must reside at the address for at least 30 days immediately preceding the election in order to be a resident of the precinct.

3) Voting Absentee in Your Home State

If you attend college in North Dakota, but are a resident of another state, contact the state election official in your home state for information about the voter qualifications and procedures for voting absentee in your home state. In most cases, if you vote in an election in North Dakota, your residency will change from your home state to North Dakota.
